

LULU McCLATCHY.

VOCAL RANGE D3 – E5 Belt – A5 high sing. MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA.
Height 5”4”.

Lulu is very proud to be included in Shane Jacobson's hit movie "That's not my Dog" as one of 30 comedians including Paul Hogan, Jim Carrey, Fiona O'Loughlin and Michala Banas. Lulu also recently starred in the Tropfest winning 2018 movie "Two Piece" directed By Greta Nash. Lulu's most recent stage Production was Prince Moo's hilarious Play Calendar Girls, in which she received raved reviews playing 'Ruth'. Prior to that Lulu was touring Australia with Prince Moo's critically acclaimed production of Avenue Q. She recently brought her comedy musical SuperGirly- Return of the Pop Princess, to Chapel off Chapel which co-stars the extremely talented and green room nominated Lyall Brooks. It was a huge success and asked back for a return season and they have just completed an Australian tour. Also in 2013 Lulu returned to the Theatre Playing 'Helen' in Neil Lebute's 'Fat Pig' for Lab Kelpie Productions.

Lulu has supported Elton John on tour as well has starred on the west end in her own show SuperGirly at the New Ambassadors Theatre. Lulu was also invited to perform at Elton John's private party 'The Tiara Ball' at his Windsor home. Guests included stars Mick Jagger, Jerry Hall, The Spice Girls, Catherine Zeta Jones and Michael Douglas, among others. Lulu also performed exclusively for Madonna, Bob Geldoff, Queen, Dolce & Gabbana and Bananarama. Other fans of her work include Jennifer Saunders, Ade Edmondson, David Furnish and Boy George. Lulu's show 'SuperGirly' has quickly become a requested show for private celebrity parties. Showing her versatility as a comedic actress Lulu received rave reviews for her role as the politically incorrect 'Cassandra' in the SBS series written by Rebel Wilson, "BOGAN PRIDE". And in 2012 Lulu was nominated for a best actress in the Maverick Movie Award in LA and also won for best performance in a short film for her leading role in 'Auditioning Fanny'. And another short film 'Muff' by the same director Mia Kate Russell, also starring Lulu has been included in the ABC's of Death DVD for 2015.
