

In 2025 Emily completed a Diploma of Screen Performance at WAAPA. She finished the year by being part of the five finalists for Easy Tiger's Equity Internship.

She has been considered for lead roles in the following TV series. Most recently reaching the last two for 'Jas' in THE TAILINGS for SBS. Down to the final two for 'Jack' in Komixx Entertainment's ITCH, based on Simon Mayo's novels of the same name. Part of the last ten for 'Oberon Brennan' in Foxtel's 'The End' and receiving a callback for 'Meg' in Tim Minchin's UPRIGHT.

In July 2021 she wrapped on professional short film PULSAR and then a Music Video for Kat Edwards, the director and writer Gabriel Morrison had just finished working on Marvel's Shang Chi and Thor: Love and Thunder.

Her first screen role was a lead in Titan (2014), which toured internationally and nationally in film festivals (Official Selection: Flickerfest, Chicago Children's International Film Festival) and screened multiple times on ABC/iView. It also reached sky high in Virgin's In-Flight Entertainment System.

Emily is of Eurasian heritage (half Japanese, half British). Emily is bilingual, she speaks English and Japanese (and intermediate French) and is able to do a Standard Australian, US and UK accents. She has a UK passport and AUS Passport.

She studied Design in Visual Communications and has completed a Bachelor of Arts in Languages (Japanese and French). She's a passionate traveler and cook.