

ACTOR BIO

Aroha Morrison is an emerging young performer, with work ranging from screen acting and physical theater, to producing, directing, writing and choreography.

Their theater company, Salty Lizard Productions (est. 2023), is a vehicle for creative expression, development and support for fellow emerging artists. With the success of debut show, 'Death & Honey' in NZ Fringe Festival 2024, their upcoming 2025 Fringe Festival production is well underway.

Recently graduated from Te Auaha Institute of Creativity with a diploma in Stage and Screen Performing Arts, Aroha will be recommencing study in 2025 for a bachelor in Performing Arts(drama), to be completed within the year.