

Chloe Bayliss

Helpmann Award Nominee and finalist in the prestigious 2016 Heath Ledger Scholarship, Chloe Bayliss is one of Australia's most notable emerging actresses with numerous credits across stage and screen.

Chloe is mostly known for her role as 'Hayley' in the main ensemble of the Nine Network's celebrated drama Doctor Doctor (S1-5). Her previous television credits including Love Child, Reef Doctors, Dance Academy and Deadly Women.

Her film credits include Michael Petroni's feature Backtrack, starring alongside Academy award winner Adrian Brody and Sam Neill which premiered at the Tribeca Film festival. And the lead in short film Driftwood Dustmites, which premiered at the Berlin Film Festival. Most recently Chloe starred in the leading role for Ruby Challengers short film Mumlife, which has been accepted for in-competition at the 2022 Cannes Film Festival- La Cinef.

On stage Chloe has starred opposite Marta Dusseldorp in the critically acclaimed Gloria for the Griffin Theatre Company. Her previous theatre credits include An Assorted Few's Home Invasion, Red Line Productions' The Whale, Ensemble Theatre's Charitable Intent, Rapture Blister Burn, Circle Mirror Transformation (for which she was nominated as 'Best Supporting Actress' at the 2012 GLUG Theatre Awards), as well as The Good Doctor.

Chloe is also a writer having released her memoir En Pointe to 5 star reviews in late 2019.

When she isn't performing, Chloe can be found in the dance studio. She has been a choreographer, dance teacher and adjudicator for over 15 years. She was trained by Marie Walton-Mahon OAM (founder of PBT) at the National College of Dance having graduated with a Diploma of Dance and Performance (High Distinction) in 2009. She trained in the RAD syllabus, receiving Distinction in every Vocational Grade exam. At age 16 Chloe was offered placement at the Washington Ballet School (Final pre-professional year) and Joffrey Ballet School. Chloe's Dance credits include- Mystic Ballet Company, Dance Academy, Mumlife- Musical. She has choreographed for TV shows The Twelve (Binge/Foxtel) and Doctor Doctor (ch9). Chloe has taught at a number of studios throughout Australia and the USA including Tanya Pearson's Academy, National College of Dance, Sydney College of Dance, Ecole Ballet, La Vive Classique, Davidson High, ALSDanse and many more.

Chloe is a proud patron of charity group Hanka and an ambassador for Australia says No More and The Red Cross Lifeblood Service.