David grew up working with Barking Gecko and Midnite Youth Theatre companies, even being lucky enough to tour Angela Betziens' Hoods throughout the UK during highschool.

Joining the Actors Hub in 2017 he developed his skills with nonstop performance opportunities, whilst also gaining valuable experience behind the camera. David wrote and directed his first short film The Eviction which premiered at the annual Actors' Hub film night.

In 2019 he performed in Squawk, which was sold to the Perth Royal show, and finished the year portraying Owain in Beau's End while rehearsing 4x4x4, a variety show, at Perth Fringe Festival 2020. He returned the following year in a supporting role in Lloyd of the Rings, returning to Fringe for a third time in A Tribute in 2022.

David has worked professionally since his first year in acting school, recently playing lead Brandon in Natalie was a Friend of Mine.
