

Based in Perth, Fraser has a dual citizenship with a British passport, Fraser found his passion for acting from watching films at a young age. After graduating high school Fraser decided to pursue his passion by taking up private tuition as well as lessons at the Ali Roberts Studio. After moving up to the adult intensive course Fraser signed with Actors Management International. Fraser's ethic of hard work also carries over to his sporting and athletic abilities. Fraser has competed at a first grade level in rugby, volleyball as well as athletics. Some of his previous theatre experience consists of one of the main villains Buldeo in 'The Jungle Book' and Blackstone in 'White Flag Albert. Fraser is proficient in performing with a British, Scottish, Irish and Standard American accent.