THE MASK FAMILY

THE MASK FAMILY are a suite of full-face, non-verbal, accessible, inclusive and magical roving mask theatre acts that connect directly to your audience. They are a heartwarming exploration of the joy of human interaction and the incredible power of how a simple act of kindness, and authentic connection, can transform a person's life. Highly visual, interactive, non-intrusive and non-language dependent, this unique roving theatre transcends age, language and culture barriers.

HOMUNCULUS THEATRE COMPANY

HOMUNCULUS has been delighting, educating and inspiring student audiences across Australia and New Zealand for over 16 years. The company offers a wide range of Australian curriculum-linked primary and secondary in-school workshops, performances, artist-in-residence programs, show doctoring and professional development for teachers. Homunculus also offers roving and street theatre performances and performance outcome projects for school fetes/events and regional community projects. WE SPECIALISE Commedia Dell'Arte, Physical Theatre, Contemporary Circus, Full-Face Non-Verbal Mask Theatre, Traditional & Contemporary Clowning, Non-Verbal Communication & Mime, Slapstick & Stage Combat, Absurdism, Melodrama, Political Satire & Brecht, Shakespeare & Clowns In Shakespeare. Our mission is to nurture a love of and life-long engagement with live performance. We seek to achieve this by sharing these theatrical forms' power, beauty, craft and humour with young people worldwide. We strongly believe access to live performing arts contributes significantly to social-emotional skills development. It builds resilience, compassion, understanding of diversity, empathy, focus, problem-solving and communication skills, community, and well-being.
