Originally from Bronx New York USA. Now residing in Wellington New Zealand. Born to West Indian Parents is what makes her extremely hard working and gives her the ability to pick up various accents easily. She grew up watching TV shows like "I Love Lucy" and "Lost in Space" which led to her love for comedy and Sci-fi from a young age. This inspired her acting career.

Studying acting with Liz Mullane and Rachel Bullock, Peter Finney, Ken Rea, Paulus Romijn and other acting workshops and acting Masterclasses at Toi Whakaari, and Screenfit with Nikki Si'ulepa all thanks to Equity New Zealand. Her acting career is an ongoing process and her passion for the art of acting and the industry in whole pushes her to achieve a high standard of professionalism and fun on set and on stage which makes her ideal to work with.

"To become a character and have the ability to captivate an audience, to me that is Gold"
