

Actor Bio

I am originally from the UK having moved to Brisbane when I was 15 years old. I've always had a passion for both theatre and film and as I further my knowledge and skills in acting, I find my passion for the craft of acting deepens. My goal is to continue to act and learn more about the craft for the rest of my life. I've studied a wide variety of techniques which have given me a clear way of approaching text analysis and character development.
