

Biography

Johnny Emery is an Australian/British performer with a depth and maturity rare for his age. Inspired by the sudden loss of his sister when he was just 19 years old, Johnny began to study acting in 2008 at the Actors Centre Australia. After the passing of his mother just 2 years later, Johnny moved to outback Australia to indulge his love of horses and country. He returned to acting in 2012 to study at the Sydney Screen Acting. His diverse background with horses and unique personal experience have given him insight into the full range of raw human emotions, which he has been able to convey throughout his 10+ years of acting. Credits include: ABC tele movie 'The Last Race' (2011), award-winning web series; 'SYD 2030' (S1:2012, S2:2014); web series 'plans' (2016); various TV commercials and music videos.
