Overview

I am a Venezuelan-Spanish actor, who after living and working in Sydney for the past ten years, now proudly calls Australia home.

Speaking both English and Spanish fluently, my cultural heritage brings a unique perspective and energy to my roles on stage and screen. My training includes the NIDA Screen Actors Studio, where I developed a rich knowledge of, and extensive skill set in, the fundamentals of acting- training in the Stanislavski System. This included intensive training in voice, movement, improvisation, script analysis and character development. My training also encompasses the more technical elements of acting for screen and I love to marry my interest of self expression with the requirements of the screen together to create memorable performances.

Further training includes NIDA Stage Actors Studio (expanding my work for live performances) as well as NIDA Extension Actors Studio- an advanced course for industry professionals. My acting work is nourished by a continuous sense of adventure, reading, drawing, writing, sharing stories and enjoying life on Sydney's Eastern Beaches.
