

Xavier Diaz is an accomplished performer. With over ten years of professional experience as a presenter for Warner Youth Education. He delivers programs throughout Australia to Primary and Secondary students on Alcohol Education and Graffiti Education. Audiences are from every demographic imaginable and numbers can range between 15 to 450 students. The life changing messages use facilitated discussions, theatre and stand up comedy as a way of engaging the students.

Xavier Diaz is also no stranger to working behind the camera. Working as an extra for the feature film Charlotte's Web as well as working with the Jacobson Brothers as a featured extra for Mordy Koots. Xavier Diaz runs his own business as children's entertainer, Master of Ceremonies and Speaker. Xavier Diaz resides in Melbourne, Australia.
