Daisy Alexis has positivity abound. She is a mature and well-mannered young lady with a perpetual smile. Daisy discovered a passion for the stage at the age of 8 when encouraged by one of her school teachers to enter public speaking competitions. She has drive, commitment and a phenomenal work ethic. Daisy takes direction well and has a history of convincing ensemble performances in musical theatre productions and recently has had small roles in short films, a feature film and also a tv series. She is excited for new challenges and opportunities to learn and grow. Daisy studies drama at school and is particularly interested in developing her skills for future screen work.
