Born in Brisbane Australia and currently living in Melbourne, Will began his training at the Arts Academy as a clean slate with little prior experience in performance art. During Will's time at the Academy, he has developed a specific love towards musical theatre having worked on developing and performing Exquisite Corpse 3.0 (an original work) and most recently portraying Hugo Dude in MOTORMOUTH LOVES SUCKFACE: An Apocalyptic Musical by Anthony Crowley. Will has always dedicated himself to pushing his physical limits and has developed an extremely strong foundation in dance and stage combat. Will is currently workshopping several new works as a writer and performer.
