ABOUT ARIELLE

REPRESENTATION

- Australia: Rob Woodburn Agency (RWA)
- North America: Pacific Artists Management Inc.

Arielle Cartwright is an Australian-born actor from the coastal town of Victor Harbor, South Australia, now working internationally across film and television. She recently completed a supporting role in the feature film Beauty From Pain (PassionFlix / Steve Jaggi Productions), appears in the Amazon MGM Studios series Every Year After, and features in the independent film Cooked, now streaming on Amazon Prime.

Drawn to storytelling that balances emotional honesty with warmth and levity, Cartwright is known for her grounded, instinctive screen presence and tonal agility across romance, comedy, and drama. With a background in theatre, singing, and performance from the age of 5yrs old - she approaches character through connection first, bringing humour, vulnerability, and authenticity to each role. Now based in Vancouver, Arielle continues to build an international body of work across the Australian and North American markets.
