

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Tess is an Australian performing artist. She graduated from the Adelaide College of Arts in 2012 after three years of full time study in performing arts and has been working for over 15 years in TV, film and stage productions.

Recently she played a supporting role in the upcoming international Netflix series Pine Gap, to be released in November 2018. In 2016 she filmed with Morgan Griffin and Xavier Samuel on the thriller Bad Blood which was nationally released in cinemas in October 2017. In 2015 Tess played a lead role in the feature film Raising the Bar which has been released in the United States, South America, UK, Europe and Australia.

She was nominated in by LA Webfest for ‘Outstanding Guest Actress in a Web Series’ for her work on Goober, the ABC Iview mini-series.

During the 2017 Cabaret Fringe Festival in Adelaide, Tess independently wrote, produced and performed her own solo cabaret/theatre piece ‘Revelations of an Angry Beast’ which was presented at the Bakehouse Theatre.

Tess is a power-house singer, and regularly performs with her sister Erin Fowler in the soul-folk band Sitara. They played at renowned world music festival WOMADelaide in 2014, supported Macy Gray on her national tour in 2015 and have performed all over the world since. In June 2017 Sitara released a visual album titled ‘ALCHEMY’, a 40min cinematic journey which paints a visual depiction of their debut 8-track album.
