

PHOEBE TWEDDLE

Phoebe Tweddle is an Australian born and internationally trained actor, who has worked alongside Amy Adams, Eliza Scanlen, and Oscar-nominated director, Jean-Marc Vallée.

Her sweet nature and quick wit make her the perfect fit for roles like your beloved girl-next-door, funny best friend, or passionate healthcare worker. Phoebe's kind spirit shines through both in-front and behind the camera - along with of course, a touch of humour, wherever she can squeeze it in.

Phoebe has trained with industry professionals Kristina Sexton, Bud Hopes, Maha Wilson, Karly Rothenberg, Eve Gordon, and stunt expert, Timothy Thomas Brown. Phoebe prides herself on her natural flair for long-form improvisation in both theatre and screen.

When the cameras aren't rolling, Phoebe loves to spend her time by the ocean, scuba diving or snorkeling, camping, and (on a more embarrassing note) bingeing Love Island UK.
