

Roger Davy is a familiar face both internationally and locally, not only for his unique Pavarotti™tribute shows but also for being one of the original voices behind Australia's well-loved export 'The Ten Tenors'. Starting his impressive career as a boy soprano he also studied at the Victorian College of the Arts and Queensland University.

As a young Artist with Opera Queensland he performed the role of Ruiz in Il Trovatore, and later under contract with Opera Australia performed several roles including Steva (Jenufa) and Gabriele Ardorno (Simon Boccanegra) ...During this time he was a finalist in the prestigious Royal Covent Garden Scholarship which enabled him to study and perform other major operatic roles in Germany and the UK. Upon returning to Australia, Roger co-founded "The Ten Tenors" and performed with them for three years. After leaving the Ten Tenors, Roger formed his own production/entertainment company Vavachi Entertainment

Roger has established himself as one of Asia's highly sought after classical corporate performers and this has seen him perform for 5 consecutive years at the Singapore F1 Grand Prix. A resident six-month performer at the Venetian Casino Macau/China., Roger recently returned to China, for a six-week contract touring in a concert production of Aida with Australian International Productions.

Career highlights have been performing for Olivia Newton John and partners at the exclusive GAIA Retreat and Spa (NSW) singing at Landaa Giraavaru Four Seasons Resort in the beautiful Maldives, working alongside international soprano Louise Kennedy as a featured artist in "Puccini and Fettuccini" and his involvement in local community theatre productions. Piangi (Phantom of the Opera), Alfredo (Die Fledermaus) and Alfredo in La Traviata

