Sarah Brokensha is an Australian Actor. She has recently finished working on RFDS Season 3, appeared in the Philippou Brothers feature film Talk To Me, Wanted Season 3 and Wolf Creek Season 2. Sarah was also featured in the SBS documentary series Four Worlds directed by Richard Coburn.

Sarah also performs extensively in theatre taking her around the world including tours to Beijing, Nashville and New York.

Sarah's first love of theatre has led to the creation of theatre company Control Party where she continues to develop new work and ideas with her long time collaborator, theatre director Daisy Brown. Theatre highlights include tours to China and North America with Patch Theatre Company with a season in Nashville and in New York, off Broadway. Hands down one of the best experiences of her life.
