

Bryan Smith is an Actor, Photographer & Filmmaker, who recently graduated from The Gaiety School of Acting – Advanced Performance Year in Theatre. With experience including a variety of stage and screen performances for independent and commercial projects. Bryan is a talented actor and voice over artist, who is proficient in Irish, Australian and American accents.

His passion for filmmaking led him to writing, directing, producing and acting in the short films, Guilt and The Clamper, the latter of which featured as an Official Selection for the 'Waterford Film Festival' & 'Dublin International Comedy Film Festival'.

Bryan currently lives in Sydney NSW, where he has full working rights as a permanent resident and actively pursues his passion for acting and performing.