Biography

Kylie Clarke is an Australian actress, writer and director working across film and television. She is best known for her screen work in the feature film The Holy Scoundrel (2024) and her work behind the camera on the short films A Lesson in Time (2024), which she wrote, produced and directed. Embody (2025), which she co-wrote and featured in, and Anybody (2026), which she co-directed.

With a background in long-form performance and screen acting, Clarke is drawn to grounded dramatic roles, authority figures, morally complex women and period characters. Her work combines emotional restraint with strength and presence.

Clarke is based in Australia and available for UK and international productions.
