ABOUT ME

Born in New Zealand with Thai heritage and now causing chaos in Australia, I'm an actor who thrives on bringing characters to life - whether cracking jokes or diving into deep drama. With a background in sports, I bring energy, discipline & a natural charisma to my performances. Committed to delivering compelling performances, I thrive in collaborative environments that challenge and inspire me. Whether I'm making people laugh or cry (hopefully on purpose), I bring passion and a whole lot of mischief to every role.
