

Talitha Parker is an Australian actor. She graduated in 2020 from three years at The National Theatre in Melbourne. She recently starred in Ballad, a short film winning Best Short Film at the LGBTQ+ Los Angeles Film Festival. In 2023 she played the lead role of Daughter in the hit KFC 'Mum?' Campaign and also starred in the OK Moon video clip 'Harpoon' by Welcome the Machines. After relocating from Melbourne to Sydney, she has been attending an array of acting classes and workshops from Lee Pickford Auditioning Technique to Andy Ryan Acting for camera. While working as an actor, Talitha has also been involved in various modeling campaigns for brands such as Virago & Co and TAC VIC. She is also a singer and writer, currently working on several screenplays.