(she/her)

Lily Infantino is a Melbourne based performer, graduating from the Federation University Arts Academy in 2024. With a passion for music from a young age, Lily unsurprisingly fell in love with the world of theatre and performance. Lily has had the pleasure of performing in The Caucasian Chalk Circle (Grusha) directed by James Wardlaw; The Spirit Level or the Strange Case of Agatha Banks (Xanthe) directed by Angela Campbell with musical direction by Rick Chew; and most recently in Crush: The Musical (Daimler Jones/Desiree) directed by Beng Oh with musical direction by Daniel Tusjak. She was also a part of After Joan, a collaborative self-devised work directed by Angela Campbell and written by Emma Hall.
