

Bio

Lisa was born in Yorkshire, England and grew up on a farm in a tiny village on top of the North Yorkshire Moors. She trained as a ballet dancer, having a scholarship with the Royal Ballet and danced professionally until a knee injury forced her to stop. She later changed careers and was accepted into The Bristol Old Vic Theatre School, where she trained under Rudi Shelly for three years, graduating in 1999. Lisa has worked in London with directors such as Tim Burton, Anthony Minghella, Nick Park, Peter Lord and Jonathan Teplitzky and with actors such as Albert Finney, Jonny Depp, Jude Law, Julie Walters and Colin Firth. She has recently moved to Australia to be with her partner and step-daughter. They have an address in both Sydney and Brisbane, where his daughter lives, and split their time between the two cities. Lisa is on a Partner visa so is legally allowed to work in Australia and can work in both Sydney and Brisbane as a local.
