

Ashleigh Rainer

Ashleigh Rainer is an Australian/German screen actress known for portraying intelligent, grounded women with quiet intensity and emotional depth. She brings authority and lived-in realism to roles across drama, crime, and high-stakes storytelling.

Recent credits include the feature film My Tai (Celeste), along with appearances in Elvis, Young Rock, and Darby and Joan. Ashleigh trains consistently with Creating Artists and has completed screen acting training with NIDA, alongside ongoing work in advanced performance technique.

With a background in singing, dance, and stunt training—including stage combat and MMA—she is well suited to physically demanding and genre-driven roles across drama, thriller, and action. Based in Brisbane, she works across Australia and internationally.
