

Greta van den Brink

Greta van den Brink is a dynamic and versatile New Zealand actress rapidly gaining recognition for her diverse skill set. She began her journey at Sam Neill's prestigious drama school, The Actor's Program, and has since worked on major productions, including The Lord of the Rings: The Rings of Power, where she combined her expertise in stunts and years of horse riding experience.

Most notably, Greta stunt doubled for the iconic Lisa Kudrow in Apple TV's Time Bandits, performing daring stunts such as an 8-meter free fall from a scissor lift and executing intricate wire-based gymnastics without prior training.

After starring in multiple short films, Greta's debut acting role will be in the highly anticipated Australian Netflix series Territory, sharing the screen with acclaimed actors like Anna Torv, Sara Wiseman, Robert Taylor, and Sam Corlett. Showcasing her musical talents, Greta's original song, "Road to Hell," is featured in the show's soundtrack. She also created the artwork for the single, a floor-to-ceiling canvas that has captured the attention of art enthusiasts.

Greta van den Brink truly embodies the phrase "jack of all trades," effortlessly blending her acting, stunts, music, and visual art into a unique and exciting career.
