BIO

Barnaby is an intelligent, soulful and dedicated young actor with a keen interest in both screen and stage work. He is a quick learner and versatile performer who takes direction well.

In 2022, he was selected from hundreds of competitors to receive the Adjudicator's Encouragement Award for his portrayal of Puck (A Midsummer Night's Dream) at the Gold Coast Eisteddfod. In 2023, he won 11 gold medals across three Speech & Drama Eisteddfods for his monologues and prose/poetry performances, as well as a Junior Championship. Passionate about poetry, Barnaby runs his own YouTube channel designed to encourage a love of literature in young readers and writers.

He loves travel and learning about different cultures, and has visited 12 countries across Europe and Asia.
