

Olivia started her acting career in comedy at the tender age of 12 in the ABC3 hit series Little Lunch, as Tamara Noodle. 3 years as the hugely popular Raffy on Home and Away followed, then to the US to star in the Disney+ original film, Secret Society of Second Born Royals, as Princess Roxana. She had always wanted to be a writer and during lockdown instead of studying for her final year of high school, she instead created, wrote and starred in the award winning Paramount+ original drama series More Than This, currently streaming on Iview. 2024/25 saw Olivia touring Australian theatres starring as Molly in Peter and The StarCatcher, guest starring in the Fremantle/Channel 5 UK co-pro series The Imposter and a lead role in the feature film Don't Post That. For the first half of 2026 Olivia toured Australia playing Miss Scarlet in the Crossroads production of Cluedo to critical acclaim. Olivia has won a Nickelodeon Kids Choice award for Best Rising Star, was a Channel 7 News Young Achiever of The Year finalist. Olivia loves travel, food and art, she's studied at RADA in London, and FONACT in France and speaks fluent French. ... And in case popularity is important to you... has had two magazine covers, dozens of magazine and newspaper spreads and was named one of WHO Magazine's most beautiful people. Olivia has a large social media following with millions of views across the usual platforms.

AWARDS

2025 Buzzie Award

Nominee Best Actress in a play or musical (Molly Peter and The Starcatcher)

2023 Channel 7 News Young Achiever Awards.

Finalist in Career Achievement (Series More ThanThis)

2022 Chicago International Children's Film Festival.

WINNER Best Live Action Youth Jury Award (More Than This)

WINNER Best Live Action Professional Jury (More Than This)

2022 ATOM awards

Nominee Best Comedy or Drama Television Program (More Than This)

Nominee Best Children's Television Program (More Than This)

2022 NHK Japan Prize

Nominee Best Work In Youth Category (More Than This)

2018 Kids Choice Awards, Australia

WINNER Favorite Rising Star