

Born in Western Sydney with Maltese heritage and dual Australian & European citizenship, Simon Debono brings a grounded, high-stakes energy to screen roles—specialising in complex characters, crime procedurals, and gritty thrillers.

His screen credits span Australian television (Home & Away, Homicide with Ron Iddles) to leading roles in character-driven short films, including Kill Grill Chill, Ranger, and The Father.

Formally trained across screen technique, combat, and voice (AMAW, Acting Mastery, Screenwise), Simon combines sharp physical precision with deep script analysis.
