I am currently working as a Learning Support Assistant, supporting high school students with learning disabilities, which I find highly rewarding. I excel in communication, being proactive in seeking assistance when needed, and am known for being loyal, committed, and reliable. My approachable nature and sense of humour enable me to connect easily with diverse groups of people.

In addition to my work, I provide regular babysitting for a child with Autism, further showcasing my ability to offer tailored care and build positive relationships.

I have a strong creative background, having achieved Excellence in Drama during high school, and I continue to explore my passions for History, Geography, and Vexillology through self-study. I enjoy designing digital art and graphics as a hobby and maintain an active lifestyle through martial arts.

I am eager to build on my existing skills while acquiring new ones and am seeking opportunities to grow both personally and professionally.
