

Ruby Blue Artists-Daena Rae

From a strong-willed, kind-hearted witch in an award-winning short film to a tired mum of 2 in a southern-style comedy musical, Daena Rae brings the same flair of unpredictability in every role that leaves audiences hooked to her work and in anticipation for what she's doing next. Daena Rae is a young emerging artist making a striking entrance in the film and theatre industry. Rae has a Bachelor of Stage and Screen Acting, received at the Australian Performing Arts Conservatory in 2024. Starring as Charlotte in the multi-award-winning short film "Unbinding Souls", Rae earned "Best Actress" at the Asian Independent Film Festival 2025. When she's not casting spells, Rae is on stage singing her heart out, fulfilling her love for musical theatre. Her most recent work was playing "Mother" in Trail To Oregon (Starkid, Hanson Creative). Rae also has a massive passion for crew roles, as she recently assistant directed Hanson Creatives' "The Lightning Thief, A Percy Jackson Musical" in late 2025. Rae continually practises all of her skills, with weekly dance classes at Shilleenas Dance Academy and bi-weekly screen acting classes run by Luke Mayze. Rae is so excited for what's next in her career!
