

TYSON JARVIS

Age Range: 32–42 | Melbourne / Ballarat

Represented by Now Actors Management (Melb / Perth / Syd)

PROFILE

Australian screen actor with a grounded presence and working-class authenticity. Brings quiet intensity, emotional restraint, and lived-in realism to crime, thriller, and grounded horror roles. Strong screen presence suited to protective fathers, detectives, morally conflicted men, and physically capable characters navigating high-stakes environments.

SELECTED CREDITS

- The Comedian – Garry (Opposite Nathan Phillips)
- The King's Daughter – Featured (Starring Pierce Brosnan)
- KitKat – National Commercial Campaign
- National Water Cart – Commercial Campaign
- Good Time Homes – Commercial Campaign

SKILLS & PHYSICAL CAPABILITY

- Firearms trained
- Manual driver
- Fight choreography (basic)
- Minor stunt experience (fight & vehicle impact)
- Competitive basketball
- Currently undergoing physical transformation