

BAYLEE ARNDT'S BIO

Baylee Arndt is a promising and adaptable actor with a passion for performing that began at a young age. He has since worked on numerous high-profile productions such as "Thor: Love and Thunder," "Standing Up for Sunny," and various commercials for well-known brands like KFC, Jaycar, Tafe NSW, Real Life Insurance, Telstra, and Nivea.

His impressive resume includes sharing the screen with RJ Mitte in the award-winning comedy "Standing Up for Sunny." His talent was recognized when he earned a nomination for Best Supporting Role for his character in "Baby Dole" at the Made in the West Film Festival in 2022. Baylee's infectious energy and ability to bring laughter and positivity to set consistently shines through as seen in his multiple collaborations with the same creatives across a range of different projects.

Adding to his achievements, Baylee secured a leading role in the upcoming Feature Film "Cooked," further highlighting his undeniable on-screen presence and talent. The film is set to premiere in 2025.

Beyond his film work, Baylee has made noteworthy appearances in the streaming series "Single Out," and he has also worked alongside popular YouTubers "Superwog" and "Sticks," showcasing his capacity to work with industry professionals across diverse platforms.

As a highly motivated individual, Baylee relentlessly pursues success and consistently delivers top-notch performances. His dedication to refining his craft is evident in his regular self-tape recordings and training at the Sydney Acting Studio.

Baylee's diverse skillset extends beyond acting, encompassing his experience as a state swimmer and water polo player, soccer enthusiast, skateboarder, BMX racer, and boulderer. Additionally, he displays his vocal versatility through singing and performing an array of accents and impressions. Baylee Arndt's blend of unwavering commitment, exceptional talent, and professionalism positions him as a rising star to watch in the entertainment industry.

