

Kat Dominis Bio

Kat Dominis is a Croatian and Slovenian Australian award winning actress and filmmaker working across Australia, the UK, Europe, Asia and the USA. A National Institute of Dramatic Art graduate (Diploma of Stage and Screen Performance, 2018) with a Bachelor of Health Sciences in Psychology, she brings emotional precision and instinctive depth to her work, balancing vulnerability with strength.

In 2020, she founded Flame Tree Entertainment and co wrote, produced and starred in the acclaimed short film Unspoken. The film won the International Grand Prix at Clermont-Ferrand International Short Film Festival (2025) and Best Short Film at CinefestOZ (2024), with Kat nominated for Best Performance at Stellar Film Festival (2026).

Screen credits include The Messenger (Australian Broadcasting Corporation), Con Girl (Paramount+ UK / Seven Network AUS), and Romeo and Juliet for the Australian Shakespeare Company. Her latest short, Not Every Day is Pancake Day, premieres in 2026.

Accents: Australian (native), UK RP, Educated London, East London, General American, Eastern European.

Highly competent special skills: French (A2), soprano, advanced first aid, Pilates, horse riding, cycling, swimming, producer, writer, director.

IMDb: <https://www.imdb.com/name/nm11790836/>

Social Media: <https://www.instagram.com/katdominis> | TikTok: @katdominis

Passports: Australian, Slovenian | UK pre settled status