

Bio: Benjamin Thomas Narkle 12 years old Aboriginal Boy (Noongar from South West WA)

Benjamin Narkle (Twin 2) : Benjamin is the 2nd Born Twin with only 1 minute difference between him and his Twin Brother Jacob. Benjamin's 1st Acting Role was with Yirra Yaakin and Black Swan Theatre company in the play "Skylab". Benjamin also performs in a Traditional Aboriginal Children's Dance Group 'Koolankas Kreate', which he has been a part of for 5 years. Benjamin is shared his first acting part with his Twin Brother Jacob. Benjamin's family moved from Bunbury to pursue his dreams of acting and performing arts.

Benjamin has shared a role with his Twin Brother Jacob in the Perth Black Swan Theatre Production of Our Town under Director Clare Watson. Benjamin has acted in supporting role for ABC Iview series KGB, a Mad Kids Production from Directors Luke and Dan Riches. He has also been showcase in a commercial for Western Australian Watercorp and regularly performs for community events with his dance group.

Benjamin is an Aboriginal boy from Western Australia with connections to the Balardong, Pindjarup, Wilman and Wardandi Noongar Tribes (the Aboriginal Tribes of the South West Region).