

ANNA MCMAHON

Anna is an Emerging Australian based Actor, in Film, TV and Professional Theatre. She most recently starred opposite Darren Gilshenan in the hilarious short film STIFF'S. Anna also made her debut with Belvoir St Theatre and Sydney Festival, with La Boite's return season of TIDDAS, since first appearing as 'Veronica' with La Boite and Brisbane Festival in their mainstage production.

Anna's other recent works include: Theatre productions DEEP and SHALLOW with Suncoast Repertory Theatre (SRT); Short films STIFF'S, BIN DAY, THE PASSENGER, IMPULSE, A NEW LENS, THE FINISH LINE, I CARE, PROJECTIONS, CROWAN and SEVEN TIMES; and TV Commercials for Toomey Family Law, CFMG Capital

Finance, and Insurance Brokers.

Anna's awards include Best Supporting Actor for SRT's DEEP in the South East Queensland Theatre Circuit 2023; Short Film BIN DAY was awarded the Fun is Good Bill Murray Comedic Shorts Award, chosen by the Hollywood icon himself, as part of the prestigious Twin Cities Film Fest in Minnesota 2023; Selected finalist with her entry IMPULSE for World Monologue Film Festival, while also taking out Best Performer and Most Innovative Film for her WMFF entry PROJECTIONS in 2022; and Best Supporting Actress with JMC Academy for her role in CROWAN in 2021.