

EDDIE TUCKERMAN

I'm a versatile screen performer skilled at adapting to new roles and connecting with fellow performers, while bringing depth to characters. Passionate about the industry, I'm keen to explore different areas, particularly pre-production and casting. Beyond the creative realm, I thrive in dynamic, innovative work environments. Outgoing and optimistic, I excel in social, fast-paced settings, where I can build strong professional relationships, as well as meaningful friendships.
