

Ava Oberoi is an Australian actress born in Dubai in 2009. She has a beautiful mix of Indian and Middle Eastern ethnicity. Her recent credits include her guest starring role as Aziza on NCIS Sydney season one Brothers In Arms, which was the most watched original local series on Paramount + and posting the largest premiere audience of any new show this season in the US across broadcast networks. At the age of 9 she voiced the rolls of both Ivory and grandkid in the award winning feature length animated film Alice Miranda - Friends Forever. She reprised her role as Ivory in Alice Miranda - A Royal Christmas Ball which was named winner of the best animation at the children's International Film Festival Of Wales. Ava has worked with major commercial brands including HSBC, Foxtel, Hyundai and the Kids Cancer Project. Ava is well versed on screen and in musical theatre having trained at National Institute Of Dramatic Art (NIDA) from 2012 - 2024 she also attends Trinity College London for Speech and Drama from 2015 - 2024 which has helped her become an expert in communicative and performance skills that are life enhancing and know no bounds her skills through training are innovative personal and authentic. Other skills include: Expert Ballerina 2012 -2023, Intermediate level French, singing, tennis and swimming she is also proficient in the American and UK accent.