

After graduating from the The National Theatre Drama School in 2010, Tegan created her foundation in acting with Melbourne based theatre companies Exhibit A: Theatre and Ultra F Theatre. Over the last decade Tegan has worked extensively in Film & Television, with notable projects such as Lion (2016), Plague (2015), Screen Australia funded short film Tanglewood (2015), Explosions (2012) & Winners & Losers (2014). In 2016 Tegan was the recipient of Best Actor for short film Small Hands, for Made in Melbourne Film Festival. Now, in 2017, she's one of the proud founding members of Melbourne based Production Company- Drifters.