

Alex Holmes is an Australian Actress based on the Gold Coast. Whilst studying at McSweeney Newman Castings screen acting school, The Warehouse Workshop, Tom McSweeney discovered Alex's innate sense of comedic timing. At school she loved learning from the likes of Darren Gilshenan ("Hugo" from Stans. new web series Population 11). Two weeks after graduating, she landed her first professional job on Peacocks new web series Apples Never Fall. Alex is absolutely full of beans about the industry around her and hopes to continue expanding her skills in dramedy.
