PROFILE

I am a highly skilled, versatile actor who's just beginning his career. I acted from when I was 6-17 years old in school and then regained my love for it when I was 21. I have since joined a community theatre group and partaken in a two-part acting course both in Manly on the Northern Beaches, Sydney. I'm confident in my talent as an actor and I've had lots of praise from people who've seen me perform. Now I'm incredibly eager to put my talent and craftsmanship to professional use on the screen and stage.
