

SALLY CLUNE

Sally is a driven and dynamic performer who has been cast as a lead in the short films, The Big Day and Disenthral. She was also cast in supporting roles for Busting Out The Bells (dir. Roz Hammond) and TeenV's US web series What We See (dir. James Bogel).

Sally was a core performer in the immersive play S-27 (Feet First Collective) for its run at the Fremantle Festival 2019 and Adelaide Fringe 2020.

Overall, Sally is a strong improviser, has a natural comedic ability and a special knack for accents. Her behind the scenes work includes being the children's acting coach for the feature film Below (Maz Lahooti); the accent coach for What We See; and she is a qualified Contact Officer (WIFT).

