

SUZANNE BEST: BIO

Suzanne is an actor and voice over artist of English/mixed European and Malaysian Chinese heritage. She graduated with a joint honours science degree from Imperial College University of London in biochemistry with management science. She gained grade 8 piano and theory of music from the Royal Schools of Music London, and qualifications in art history and painting from Macquarie University Sydney.

After careers in investment banking/securities trading, science and art management, Suzanne has fully immersed herself in acting, studying at Cooper Screen Academy, Acting True, and ongoing tuition at Screencoach amongst other well-respected professional coaches. Studies have included Shakespeare, American drama, clowning /comedy, voice acting, accents and dialects and daily yoga and Alexander technique

Her multicultural background has given her an excellent ear for accents and dialects, particularly Asian ones. Suzanne has landed featured and extras roles on The Gloaming, Rosehaven, various short films, and also in some local TVCs. As well as acting, she has also worked behind the scenes in production and as an attachment in the locations department on The Gloaming.

Her culturally diverse life experience brings variety, interest and truth into her acting.
