

Mihir Ahuja is an Indian actor well-known for his performances in Hindi and Australian films. He studied at Carmel Junior College School in Jamshedpur and HR College of Commerce and Economics in Mumbai. He is a well-known Actor, Beatboxer, Voice Over Artist and Singer.

His most prominent work has been in the film, The Archies (2023) where he played the character of Jughead Jones directed by Zoya Akhtar. Mihir landed this role when Zoya spotted him on the sets of her web series, Made in Heaven Season 2 (2023) in which he played the role of Dhruv Jauhari.

His first International project was as a lead alongside Neena Gupta in the Australian Film titled, Hindi Vindi (2025)

His other prominent roles include that of a triathlete, Aditya Jaiswal in the film, Vijay 69 (2024), alongside veteran actor, Anupam Kher. He has also starred in a six episodic anthology, Feels Like Ishq (2021) and a Lionsgate Play release Feels Like Home (2022).

Mihir enjoys doing independent films as well which give him a platform to explore a diverse acting arena. Few of them are Meghdoot: The Cloud Messenger (2022) which was screened at the MAMI Mumbai Film Festival, Kiss (2022) in which he played a homosexual character, and a film called Strawberry Cream, shot in the Himalayas, which was made by students of Columbia University, USA.

Ahuja was also a part of a critically acclaimed short film, Manoranjan (2022) which is on Royal Stag Barrel Select Large Short Films YouTube channel. His other short films include The Blue Sweater (2020) and The Purple Scarf (2023).

Ahuja started his career with TV Commercials, with the first one being alongside Virat Kohli. He has been in various commercials with Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, Ranbir Kapoor and the most recent one being alongside Hrithik Roshan. He starred in a critically acclaimed, Cadbury 5 Star Commercial which brought him a lot of recognition in the industry, and he came to be known as the '5-Star Guy'.

Ahuja's debut in Hindi Movies was in Super-30 (2019) which was his first theatrical release followed by Dhaakad (2022) being his second release in the theatres.

He was also seen in Bard of Blood (2019) produced by Red Chillies Entertainment and aced the role of Param Hariprasad in Mission Over Mars (2019) and was also seen in the film Dolly Kitty Aur Woh Chamakte Sitaare (2019).

Mihir's debut in Telugu film was in Mosagallu (2021), where he played a call center scammer. This helped him gain lot of followers from southern India as well.

His other roles include the role of Shalin in Taj Mahal 1989 (2020) and that of Omar in State of Siege: Temple Attack (2021).

