

EMILY MUTIMER – BIO

Emily Mutimer is an Australian Actress, Singer-Songwriter and Screenwriter. Plays ‘Astrid’ in the Australian LGBTQ series Flunk (Amazon, Tubi, Vimeo) , a global hit with over 194 million views and 464k subscribers on the channel, as well the franchise’s spin off feature films ‘After School’ and ‘The Sleepover’ which became a top-ten LGBTQ film on Tubi. In 2023-2024 Emily played a main cast role in two Australian Pilots ‘Maude’ in ‘Bunchie’ directed by John Orcsik and ‘Eliza’ in ‘Bongrats’ - which sold out a 250 seat theatre for its premiere in Melbourne. She also stars as series regular ‘Sonia’ in the US Pilot ‘It’s Not How It Sounds’, also starring US comedian Joe Bartnick, filmed at US comedian Bill Burr’s office in Los Angeles - ‘All Things Comedy’.

Alongside acting, Emily wrote and acted in a comedy/drama short film ‘On the Seventh Day I Was Late To Spin Class’ which is currently being submitted to festivals for a premiere release. At present, Emily is recording original indie pop music - her style emulates sounds of Lana Del Rey.