

AVA MCCLEAN

ACTOR

DESCRIPTION

Ava McClean, raised on Sydney's Northern Beaches, is an upcoming graduate from Actors Centre Australia finishing up in late November 2024. Her commitment to honing her skills is evident in her exceptional performances across a wide range of roles. Currently, she is being trained by some of the best in the industry focusing on voice, movement and accent. She is extremely dedicated to mastering her craft, and is constantly expanding her skills on stage and screen.

Self expressed "jack of all trades", Ava has an extensive sporting background, as a national champion in the rowing boat to the weekend surfer, she has the ability to take on physically harsh roles and has the work ethic to match. Ava has the capability to take on any challenge and bring it to life, having a love for finding the truth in the stories we tell.

RECENT WORK

LINDA

STAGS & HENS WILLY RUSSEL | STAGED 23 AUGUST 2024

- Played the lead role as the bride to be. Linda is an outlier in the world of 1970's Liverpool where she goes against the grain of societal expectations to become "the perfect women". Linda is a strong, independent, intelligent character who chooses to let the life she knows to take a gamble on a life of liberation.

STUFF/MIND/ SOMEBODY

EVERYBODY BRANDON JACOBS JENKINS | STAGED MAY 2024

- Played multiple characters in an absurdist moral play based off the original Play everyman.

YELENA

UNCLE VANYA ANTON CHEKOV | STAGED AUGUST 2023

- Played the main role as the trapped young wife to the professor. Yelena carried herself with elegance and refinement, but is often melancholic and apathetic, moving slowly and speaking languidly. She appears distracted and lost in thought, maintaining a polite but distant demeanour that makes it difficult for others to get close to her. Despite her beauty and youth, she can come across as self-absorbed and narcissistic, and her indolent nature makes her seem disconnected from the world around her.
