
MARQUEE

SAMANTHA HEALY

Samantha has an impressive career in theatre, film and television since graduating from the Queensland University of Technology with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Acting.

Samantha has had numerous leading and supporting roles in film. She starred as Bella in the US feature film The Condemned, directed by Scott Wiper for Lionsgate, Jass in Peaches alongside Hugo Weaving directed by Craig Monahan, Catherine in Hosono-Guni (samurais ramen), directed by Mr Hosono for Rice Island Productions, Sara in Dear Claudia directed by Chris Cudlip, Stephanie in The Sugar Factory, directed by Robert Carter as well as roles in The Extra and Times of Love.

Samantha's extensive television credits include the regular role of Ashleigh in McLeod's Daughters, Zen-Oh Hostess in the US series The Starter Wife, Series role of Elizabeth in Monarch Cove, Cleopatra in Little Oberon, Helen in Last Man Standing, Donna in the popular series Blue Heelers, Martine in MDA, Kate and Fiona in Stingers, Ice Queen in The Lost World, Rylani in Farscape, Lara in Beastmaster, Blair in Water Rats, Elly in Death by Magic, the regular series role of Jaz in All Saints, Candy in Wildside, Tamara on Children's Hospital as well as her feature role in Medivac and guest role in Seven Network/UK's ITV Studios production of Mrs Biggs. Most recently, Samantha starred in Sammy j & Randy in Ricketts Lane for ABC TV in the role of Victoria.

In theatre Samantha's productions include her leading role of Estella in the Melbourne Theatre Company's production of Great Expectations directed by Simon Philips as well as Mary in Playworks production of The Road Screen directed by Anna Messariti.

After a hiatus from her professional career to focus on raising her young family, Samantha returned to our screens in 2016 in a guest role for Season Five on House Husbands.