Bonnie began her studies in 2019, when she moved to Ballarat to fulfil her passion for performing arts at Federation University. Whilst studying, she has been privileged to work on many productions including, "The Sentimental Bloke" playing Mrs. Mitchell, and the fair Helena in Shakespeare's, "A Midsummer Night's Dream". Before attending university, Bonnie was lucky enough to explore her other love of directing when she directed "Godspell", while also playing the role of Judas. One of Bonnie's proudest experiences has been getting the chance to collaborate with Luke Di Somma and Casey Gould on the self-devised production, "Exquisite Corpse", in which she wrote and performed in a piece titled, "The Last Ones Left". Bonnie would like to expand this work, and hopes to further learn and explore her love of acting, writing, and directing.
