

Francis is a professionally trained Filipino/Australian performer, specializing in Acting for both screen and theatre. Having been a natural Tenor singer his whole life and experienced in multiple styles of dance including Modern, Ballet, Jazz, Latin and Pas de Deux, he is a real Triple Threat performer with unique training in Stage Combat and Boxing.

In 2020 alone, Francis has been cast in multiple short films, the Web Series 'What We See' and most recently the hit Musical production 'We Will Rock You' at Crown Theatre, Perth.

Graduating from Principal Academy of Dance and Theatre Arts with an Advance Diploma in Musical Theatre, Francis has also undertaken training short courses with Greg Apps and WAAPA. After graduating from his studies in 2019, he has been busy learning new combat skills, working on his accents and attending regular acting and dance classes to keep up his training.

Motivated by his lifelong love for acting, film and photography, Francis thrives on working with other industry professionals. He continues daily to seek new opportunities to grow his personal skillset, something that makes him very adaptable and dedicated to an ever-changing Arts industry.

Francis is trained in Standard American, Australian and Standard British Accents.

Francis is based in Perth, Western Australia.
